FROM THE DESK OF THE CHAIRMAN

At Marwadi University, we are committed to offering our students a unique platform that makes them industry-qualified and enhances their knowledge that can be practically implemented in the real world. Gaining knowledge with the help of analytical tools that unlocks the limitless potential of an individual is no more a distant dream. With the help of 3-layer learning at Marwadi University, we aim to promote technological expertise with a mix of vigorous research and revised skillsets. The first layer consists of Knowledge that focuses on attributes like critical thinking, identifying opportunities, and decision-making. While the second layer aims at improving the individual skills that push the students closer to their goals. With the acquired technical and soft skills, the third layer which is the development stage prepares the students to implement the gained knowledge in real-life situations. The convergence of the competence will accelerate the students' proficiency in contributing in the highest manner to our society. With Rajkot being the entrepreneurial hub of the Saurashtra region of Gujarat that provides plenty of employment opportunities, a lack of knowledge and its implementation was seen.

Marwadi University had been established with the sole purpose of bridging the gap between the immense economical growth and the lack of technological advancements. With the research-oriented tech-focused curriculum, Marwadi University aims to direct its students in the direction that leads them to become successful entrepreneurs. This pushes them to utilize the available opportunities in a manner that also contributes to the betterment of our society.

Ketan Marwadi
Founder & President | Marwadi University

FROM THE DESK OF CO-FOUNDER & VICE CHAIRMAN

While Marwadi University exclusively focuses on building expertise through a hands-on learning manner, the holistic development of the students is not left in the lurch. The competency of our faculty members is time and again revived with the help of efficient Faculty Development Programmes, and the recurring strive to constructively hone our students through workshops and training that takes them closer to self-learning. The ethical values that we acuminate, nurture and mentor our students and lean them to the area of revolution along with self-discovery. The amalgamation of analytical knowledge along with acquired skill-learning would generate a plethora of opportunities for the students. By providing them with the necessary tools, resources, and strategic guidance; Marwadi University aims at promoting self-learning and self-discovery. To this end, we are committed to empowering our students with the accumulated knowledge and driving them towards a healthier, progressive, and prosperous future.

Such kind of educational system not only focuses on the socio-economic growth of the region but takes a leap towards international recognition as well. With the establishment of Marwadi University, we intended to considerably invest in the educational sector in order to proportionately focus on entrepreneurship along with education. By doing so, we aim to nurture society in the areas of research and technology and also drive growth via industrial and academic partnerships.
