Online Education

1. Does all programs/courses were completed on time.		Yes
2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.		Following measures were undertaken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs; •The University swiftly shifted from face-to-face classroom interaction to virtual interaction between teachers-students. Along with the advancement in technological tools, the University leveraged digital platforms to deliver academic lectures •All faculty members were encouraged and motivated to take up at least one online course on 'Effective Online Teaching'. •The University created online repository with records of Online Lectures which acted as a guide to attain the objectives of Teaching-Learning practices and to fulfill the academic standards set-in by the University. The system was developed with an aim to enhance the student learning experience by providing recorded lectures for students who could not attend the lecture or to relearn and revisit the contents of lecture as and when he/she requires. Further, it provided clarity to teachers with a focus on areas of improvement in delivering lectures through online platform •University developed an online class observation system where the Head of the Departments and Dean of the Faculties are appointed as observers to observe online class sessions/recordings and suggest training or corrective feedback to improve engagement with students in online mode. •Partnered with Coursera, a leading online learning platform, as an external support for blended and online teaching-learning. •Prioritizing student's safety due to the outbreak of COVID-19 and realizing timely deliverance of results to the aspiring graduating students who are looking forward to joining their employers to start their careers, Marwadi University was the first University in the state to conduct online MCQ along with short questions based on indigenously developed MU Exam app. The results were declared on time and provisional certificates were dispatched through the post to avoid unnecessary visits of students to campus.
